Prosecutor's Detectives Arrest Princeton Man for Sharing Child Pornography Online

A 24-year-old Princeton man was arrested on Tuesday for sharing child pornography on the internet, Mercer County Prosecutor Angelo J. Onofri reported.

Jose Donis-Siguil was arrested by Mercer County Prosecutor's Detectives Charles Antinoro and Ryan Minnick at his residence on Witherspoon Street on Tuesday afternoon. He was charged with possession and distribution of child pornography, both second-degree crimes, and lodged at the Mercer County Correction Center pending a detention hearing.

Detectives Antinoro and Minnick are assigned to the New Jersey State Police Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force. They initiated an investigation after receiving a tip from the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children.

Prosecutor Onofri urged anyone who has information about the online distribution of child pornography – or who suspects improper contact by unknown persons communicating with children online or possible exploitation or sexual abuse of children – to please contact the New Jersey Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force tipline at 1-888-648-6007.

Despite having been charged, every defendant is presumed innocent until found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
