East Windsor Man Receives Two 15-Year Sentences for Sex Assaults

TRENTON – An East Windsor man was recently sentenced to two 15-year periods of incarceration, to run concurrent, for sexually assaulting two young girls, Mercer County Prosecutor Angelo J. Onofri reported.

Allan Montepeque-Nunez, 38, of Windsor Castle, was sentenced by Mercer County Superior Court Judge Robert W. Bingham II on December 7. He pleaded guilty to two counts of first-degree aggravated sexual assault in July 2018. The sentence is subject to the No Early Release Act so Montepeque-Nunez will have to serve 85 percent of his prison term before he is eligible for parole. In addition, the defendant was sentenced to parole supervision for life and will have to register as a sex offender under Megan's Law.

The incidents occurred on diverse dates between 2011 and 2016 in East Windsor when the young victims, who were known to the defendant, were in his care.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant Prosecutor Laura Kotarba of the Special Victims Unit.
